

Other Federal Agencies with Export Control Authority

The Departments of State, Commerce and Treasury are the primary agencies with export control authority for items, technology, associated non-public information, and services, there are other agencies that have authority over other types of goods and materials. Some other agencies examples are:

- Office of Diversion Control, Drug Enforcement Agency, Department of Justice
 - Import/Export Permit Applications and Declarations \(usdoj.gov\)
- Food and Drug Administration
 - Imports and Exports | FDA
- U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, Department of Interior
 - Document \(fws.gov\)
 - U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service - Forms \(fws.gov\)
- Nuclear Regulatory Commission
 - Export-Import | NRC.gov
- Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Department of Agriculture
 - USDA APHIS | Animal and Animal Product Export Information
- Department of Energy
 - Office of Nuclear Energy
 - Export-Import | NRC.gov
 - National Nuclear Security Administration
 - Export Control Compliance \(anl.gov\)

*This is not a comprehensive list of all U.S. export control regulations; additional laws and regulations exist, but typically University activities will not involve data, goods, or services under their jurisdiction. Please contact the Sr. Compliance Manager to discuss and answer questions.